PRESENT
A HUNDRED WORDS FOR SNOW
BY TATTY HENNESSY

STREAMING • APRIL 13 – MAY 2, 2021

KEEP THE CONVERSATION GOING ONLINE WITH THE HASHTAG #toSNOW
FRIENDS,

Welcome to the second digital show of our Spring season!

This production is the Atlanta premiere of the work of Tatty Hennessy - an exceptional British playwright who also develops scripts for film and television and is a hugely talented director and dramaturg. Tatty has a wonderfully original voice that combines humor with deep questions about the world, and a cinematic sense of language that ignites the imagination and brings audiences on extraordinary journeys.

First produced at the Arcola Theatre in London as part of their Vault Festival, A Hundred Words for Snow was a smash hit that was immediately booked for a national tour of the UK and ended up with a hugely successful run at Trafalgar Studios in the West End. The play tells the story of Rory, a fifteen-year-old girl who is reeling with grief from the sudden death of her dad - a geography teacher who was obsessed with great tales of Arctic explorers who battled the elements in pursuit of new discoveries.

To cope with her grief, Rory takes her dad’s ashes, and the audience, on an amazing adventure to the North Pole. Over the course of the play, she learns a lot about herself and her relationship with her family, about human beings and our place in nature, about the history and geography that formed this impossible landscape, and ultimately about grief and healing. When thinking about the kind of play we would need as we emerge from a year of loneliness and isolation, we felt that this play resonated in real and beautiful ways with the current moment we’re all living through.

WE'RE EXCITED TO EMBARK ON THIS JOURNEY WITH YOU. WE HOPE YOU ENJOY IT!

This project is supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts. To find out more about how NEA grants impact individuals and communities, visit www.arts.gov.

Major support is provided by the City of Atlanta Mayor’s Office of Cultural Affairs. Major funding for this organization is provided by the Fulton County Board of Commissioners.
We’re proud to support Theatrical Outfit. Their mission to provide experiences where the community can celebrate, console, and most importantly, connect with one another, inspires us. Because at Truist, our purpose is to inspire and build better lives and communities. And we boldly believe in the power of what we can achieve together.
15-year-old Rory’s father always wanted to be an Arctic explorer, but had to settle for being a geography teacher in suburban England. When he dies suddenly in an accident, Rory decides to honor her dad’s lifelong dream and to take his ashes on one last, great expedition to the North Pole. Direct from a sold-out run on London’s West End, Tatty Hennessy’s epic and hilarious A Hundred Words For Snow will take you on an unforgettable journey through love, loss, and endless snow.
A HUNDRED WORDS FOR SNOW was first performed at the Arcola Theatre, London, in 2018, and was the winner of a VAULT Origins Award for outstanding new work from the VAULT Festival theatre programme in 2018. It was revived at the Trafalgar Studios in the West End in January 2019. It has now made its way across the pond for its Southern premiere right here at Theatrical Outfit.

A HUNDRED WORDS FOR SNOW was filmed live at the Balzer Theater at Herren’s right in the heart of Downtown Atlanta. With 3 weeks of rehearsal, 2 days of filming, and countless safety measures, the first production on our stage in over one year is now ready for you to enjoy from anywhere.
KRISTEN JETER* (RORY) is happy to be returning to a stage, even if it is a digital one! Kristen got bit by the bug when her Griffin Middle School theatre troupe got to perform an excerpt from Guys and Dolls Jr. at the Fox Theatre. She went on to study Musical Theatre at the American Musical and Dramatic Academy in New York City. Professionally, Jeter has been fortunate enough to begin leaving her mark all around the country, by working hard and staying humble. Since returning to Atlanta, Kristen has performed as Patina in Ghost at the Alliance Theatre, as Mercy in School Girls; Or, The African Mean Girls Play at True Colors Theatre, and as Donna in Flex during Theatrical Outfit's Downtown Dialogues series last year. Favorite credits include Hair (Dionne), All Shook Up (Lorraine), Little Shop of Horrors (Crystal), Nuncrackers (Sister Robert Ann), and the show that led her back to the Fox Theatre stage, the Broadway national tour of The Book of Mormon. Because of the pandemic, Jeter can now be found on the internet like everybody else. For more info, visit www.kristenjeter.com and follow @kristen_jeter.

Previously she has adapted The Snow Queen for Theatre N16, developed her first play All That Lives about Henrietta Lax at the Ovalhouse Theatre and she is currently developing new work with producer Rebecca Gwyther. The following people donated to Theatrical Outfit in memory of Graham Martin, our longtime trustee, advocate, and friend. Graham served as TO’s Board Chair for 5 years and was instrumental in the creation of our home at the Balzer Theater at Herren’s, whose rehearsal hall bears his name. His support of TO continued long after his board service ended and carries on today with these gifts given in his memory. We are touched by this outpouring of love.
